

Powell Police Department Joins the National Crime Map

Citizens now have free access to official, timely crime data through CrimeReports.com

Location—date

Have you ever seen flashing blue lights in your neighborhood and wanted to know what was going on? Do you want to find out how safe your neighborhood really is? Now you can, through a new partnership between Powell Police Department and CrimeReports, creators of the National Crime Map, at www.CrimeReports.com.

“Providing reliable, timely information to our citizens is one of our top priorities,” says Chief Feathers. “And partnering with CrimeReports gives us the ability to keep the public informed on a regular basis as to what is going on in the community.” He added that the map will be updated every 24 hours and that citizens can sign up for free crime email alerts. “We hope that giving the community this information will help them prevent crime in their neighborhoods.” Chief Feathers added.

“Powell Police Department is a leader in law enforcement innovation,” says Greg Whisenant, founder and CEO of CrimeReports. “They are demonstrating their commitment to the community, to proactive policing, and fiscal responsibility.” The CrimeReports service only costs Powell Police Department $199/month.

Powell Police Department is joining a list of nearly 600 other law enforcement agencies of all sizes across North America who are sharing their crime information with the public through the map, like Baltimore, Boston, San Jose, San Francisco, Portland, Washington D.C., Los Angeles County, and more.

You can access your local crime map and sign up for daily, weekly, or monthly email crime alerts at www.CrimeReports.com or at the Powell Police Department’s website at www.powellpolice.com.
