The United States Secret Service has released the attached bulletin regarding counterfeit $100 U.S. currency that may be circulating in our area. The bulletin provides side by side comparison of authentic and counterfeit bills that will aid in the detection of counterfeit bills. To date the Powell Police have not received any reports regarding these counterfeit bills. This bulletin is being released to the general public to raise awareness to the potential presence of these bills and aid in detecting and reporting their use. If you receive one of these bills contact the Powell Police Department.
