On July 22, 2009 at approximately 1:16 PM Powell Police received a report of a man being assaulted and abducted in the 500 block of N Clark St. The report indicated that the victim was forced into a blue car that left the area. One witness followed the vehicle reporting its location to Powell Police Dispatch Center which then directed officers to it. It was eventually stopped on US Highway 14A at Road 7. The vehicle occupants were questioned and identified and the case is under investigation. There is no further information available for release pending completion of the investigation.
