Park County Law Enforcement Officers Support Wyoming Special Olympics

Law enforcement officers from the Park County Sheriff's Office, Powell Police Department, Cody Police Department and Park County Attorney's Office participated in the annual Law Enforcement Torch Run in support of Wyoming Special Olympics. Each year peace officers from around the world take part in this event to raise funds to support the Special Olympics Games of Ability. On Saturday morning May 10th 12 officers conducted the torch of hope 24 miles from the Park County Law Enforcement Center in Cody to the Powell Law Enforcement Center and were joined by Special Olympics athletes for the last mile that took them through down town Powell to the Police Department on Clark St. Officers raised funds by seeking pledges for donations and the sale of Wyoming Special Olympics T-Shirts. Any who like to support these athletes may still do so by contacting Deputy Roger Dunn at 754-8700 or the Powell Police Department at 754-2212.
